Micajah[3] Cleveland lived in Virginia and was troubled by Indians, who stole his son John[4]. Micajah's wife, mourning for her stolen son as dead, named her next child "John." But the first John returned home in several years. He then changed his name to Jack, and he was called Indian Jack. He accompanied his mother to Tennessee, and went with a Mr. Hurly to Clinch Mountain (toward Kentucky), where he shouldered his gun and went away never to return.*

Mrs. Micajah[3] Cleveland married a second time, probably in Virginia, to John Shaw. They came to Tennessee and then to Shelby County, Kentucky. They had five children.

Sources for Children: John Cleveland (the older one) was stolen by Indians. His mother, mourning for him as dead, named her next son John. Then first John returned home several years later, and his names was changed to "Jack." Some called him "Indian Jack." He accompanied his mother to TN and went to Clinch Mt., toward KY, and was never heard from again.

MICAJAH AND SARAH CLEVELAND MOVED FROM FAIRFAX CO. VIRGINIA TO BOURBON COUNTY, KY IN 1798, THEN TO HARRISON COUNTY, KY IN 1810. FAMILY TRADITION SAYS HE WAS A SOLDIER IN THREE DIFFERENT WARS. HE SERVED WITH SOME OF HIS SONS IN THE WAR OF 1812, IN CAPT. JAMES COLEMAN'S COMPANY, KENTUCKY MOUNTER INFRANTY. MICAJAH CLEVELAND WAS A MEMBER OF THE PREDESTINORIAN BAPTIST CHURCH FOR YEARS POSSESSING MANY SOCIAL QUALITIES. HE MOVED TO GIBSON COUNTY, INDIANA IN 1828 WHERE SOME OF HIS OLDER CHILDREN HAD ALREADY MIGRATED. HE WAS 69 WHEN HE DIED, HIS WIDOW WAS 62

Sources for Husband:

Micajah Cleveland was a soldier in three different wars, according to the Cleveland genealogy book. He was a member of the Predestinarian Baptist Church for years and was said to have possessed many social qualities. He came to Harrison Co in 1796. Moved to Posey Co., Indiana in 1832.[1]

The Clevelands came out of Virginia into Harrison County, Kentucky where Micajah Cleveland and two of his son's were in the war of 1812. One son, John, is listed as being in Posey County as early as 1818. Leffel's History says that Charles stayed in Kentucky until 1834. While there he married Phoebie Luendford. They had 13 children."[2]

FAMILY TRADITION SAYS HE ("Jackie") WAS THE FIRST OF THE FAMILY TO MOVE TO INDIANA. NAMED THE TOWN CYNTHIANA AFTER CYNTHIANA, KY FROM WHICH HE MOVED. CYNTHIANA IS IN POSEY COUNTY, ROBB TOWNSHIP. HE CAME HERE ABOUT 1820. EDMUND CLEVELAND'S "GENEALOGY OF THE CLEVELAND FAMILY" GIVES HIS NAME AS ANDREW JACKSON CLEVELAND, BUT THIS IS EASILY DISPROVED. THE NAME ANDREW JACKSON CLEVELAND NEVER APPEARED IN ANY CENSUS RECORDS OR PUBLIC RECORDS OF POSEY COUNTY, EXCEPT FOR A SON OF LELAND CLEVELAND WHO WASN'T BORN UNTIL 1837.

IN 1857, ALONG WITH OTHER RELATIVES AND FRIENDS, JOHN AND ANNA CLEVELAND MOVED TO SALINE COUNTY, ILLINOIS. JOHN DIED ON JUNE 12, 1859, AGE 63, OF TYPHOID FEVER. ANN DIED APRIL 1860 AGE 61

HISTORY OF SIXTH CAVALRY.

This Regiment was organized at Camp Butler, Ill., November 19, 1861.

Moved to Shawneetown, Ill., November 25, 1861, and encamped until February, 1862, when it moved to Paducah, Ky., and, from thence to Columbus, Ky., where the Regiment was divided—5 companies going to Trenton, Tenn., 5 to Memphis, and 2 companies remaining at Paducah and Bird's Point.

During the spring and summer of 1862 the several detachments operated against the guerrillas, and were in several engagements, the most important of which was Dyersburg, Tenn., and Olive Branch and Coldwater, Miss.—in all of which it was successful, with a loss of 2 killed, 6 wounded and 1 taken prisoner.

Early in the fall of 1862, the detachments were again united at Memphis, and November 26, 1862, formed the advance of General Sherman's Army Corps, in its movements south towards Grenada, Miss.

In the latter part of December it was engaged, with others, in the pursuit of General Van Dorn, after his raid upon Holly Springs, engaging him for 7 consecutive days.

January, 1863, the Regiment returned to Lagrange, Tenn., where it went into winter quarters, and operated against the numerous bands of partizan rangers. While thus engaged the Regiment, on one occasion, surprised and routed Richardson's command, near Covington, Tenn., capturing their entire camp equipage, ammunition, books, papers, etc.

Again, on the 29th March, a detachment of the Regiment was attacked, at midnight, by a superior force, and, although in a manner surprised, by a murderous volley poured into them while still sleeping, the command repulsed the enemy with effect—Lieutenant Wilson, and 8 men killed; Lieutenants Baker and Anderson and 29 men wounded. For the gallantry of the command a special order was issued, by General William S. Smith, complimenting officers and men.

April, 1863, was engaged in the famous expedition which, under Colonel B. H. Grierson, made the tour through Mississippi and Louisiana. In this expedition the Regiment traveled about 800 miles; was engaged a number of times with the enemy; destroyed a vast amount of property, and arrived safely at Baton Rouge, La., May 2, 1863, after a continuous march of 17 days.

It operated under General Banks in the siege of Port Hudson, in June and July, 1863.

June 2, 1863, formed a part of Colonel Grierson's expedition to Clinton, La. June 3, had a heavy engagement with the enemy, and returned to or near Port Hudson, La., June 6 with a loss of 2 killed, 4 wounded and 3 taken prisoners.

Port Hudson having capitulated, July 8, 1863, the Regiment embarked, July 12, on board steamers for Memphis, where it arrived the latter part of July, 1863.

Moved in August to Germantown, Tenn., where it encamped until November 28, 1863, when it participated in Colonel Hatch's expedition to Covington, Tenn; then to Lagrange, Tenn., there encountering General Forrest's forces. Had a sharp engagement, but discovering the enemy was flanking around in the direction of Moscow, Tenn., the expedition was ordered to Moscow, where it arrived December 4, and had a heavy engagement. The Regiment sustaining a loss of 5 killed, 6 wounded, 20 taken prisoners and 2 missing. Routed the enemy, and drove them 15 miles, and returned to Germantown, Tenn., to their old camps, where it remained, operating against Generals Forrest and Chalmers' forces until February 17, 1864, when it formed a part of General William S. Smith's expedition to West Point, Miss. There had a 3 days' engagement with General Forrest's command and returned to Germantown, where it remained in camp until March 30, 1864, when the Regiment re-enlisted, as veterans, and ordered to Illinois, on furlough.

May 11, 1864, furlough having expired, the Regiment rendezvoused at Mattoon, Ill. Thence, moved to Memphis, Tenn., where it encamped until July, when 7 companies were ordered to proceed to Collierville, Tenn., to guard the railroad, until General A. J. Smith's expedition could move on and capture Guntown, Miss. Rejoined the Regiment at Memphis. Lieutenant E. Ball was killed, and 2 men captured, while on patrol duty at Collierville.

August, 1864, all the effective part of the Regiment joined in General A. J. Smith's expedition to Oxford, Miss. August 13, had an engagement with General Forrest's command, at Hurricane Creek, Miss. Casualties, 3 men killed, 6 wounded.

The detachment that was left with the camps, at Memphis, participated in the fight with Forrest, when he made his raid into Memphis. Colonel M. H. Starr was mortally wounded, and 1 man slightly wounded, and Lieutenant Miller and 1 man captured.

The Regiment returned to White Station, Tenn., where it encamped until the first of October, 1864, when it composed a part of General Hatch's expedition to march through West Tennessee to Clifton, on Tennessee River. There joined General Washburn's expedition of Infantry. The Infantry disembarked and moved in the direction of Lawrenceburg, Tenn. General Hatch's Division of Cavalry composed the advance guard. After 2 days march the Infantry returned to Clifton, and the Cavalry moved on to Lawrenceburg. Thence to Savannah, Tenn., and returned to Clifton, where it remained for a few days.

General Washburn's command of Infantry embarked on steamers, and returned to Memphis. General Hatch's Division of Cavalry moved rapidly to Pulaski, Tenn., where it encamped for a few days. On its arrival at Pulaski, the Sixth Illinois Cavalry was ordered back on a 2 days' scout, on the Clifton road, and returned to the command at Pulaski. Then marched, with Division, down on Shoal River, near Florence, Ala., where it skirmished daily with General Hood's forces, while they were crossing the Tennessee River. Fell back, in advance of Hood's command, to Lawrenceburg, where it participated in a 5 hours' engagement with the enemy. Then back to Columbia.

After crossing Duck River the command halted for a few days.

The Sixth Illinois Cavalry was ordered to move rapidly to Shelbyville, Tenn.; then cross Duck River, and move 20 miles down the river and cross at Pike Ford, and return to the command at Columbia. After 2 days' march, arrived at Shelbyville; the third day, at Pike Ford. On arriving there it was ascertained that General Forrest's entire command had crossed the river, 6 miles below, the day before. By this time, the rebel scouts were discovered, in every direction. The Regiment being then almost in the rear of the entire rebel forces, the only chance to escape capture or annihilation was to swim the river and cut its way through, which was done with entire success. After crossing the river, the march was resumed, constantly skirmishing with the rebel patrol and flankers. After marching 13 miles, the Regiment camped so near the enemy that their fires could be seen, and they could be heard chopping wood. Next morning the Regiment resumed the march at one o'clock, and rejoined the command at Franklin, Tenn., at ten o'clock A. M. Its loss, on expedition, was 3 men missing. The battle of Franklin commenced at one o'clock, same day, in which the Regiment took an active part. After the battle was over, it marched to Nashville, Tenn., with the command, where it arrived about the last of November, 1864.

December 5, 1864, the Regiment was ordered on an expedition to Glasgow, Ky., and returned to Nashville, December 13, and, on the 15th, was a part of the cavalry that charged and captured the two first redoubts, and 9 pieces of artillery, and a number of prisoners. This closed the first day's fight. Lost 2 men killed, and 3 wounded.

On the morning of the 15th, the Cavalry was re-mounted, and moved on the right flank but, finding the country too rough, was compelled to dismount and fight on foot; and, while the Infantry engaged the enemy on the left and center, the Cavalry engaged it on the right. In the afternoon of the second day's battle, the enemy's lines were broken, and a general stampede ensued. The Cavalry was again re-mounted, and ordered in pursuit of the enemy. Had another engagement about dark, which terminated in the complete rout of the enemy. Pursued them to Florence, Ala., and there abandoned the pursuit.

Marched with the command from Florence, Ala., to Gravelly Springs, Ala., where it encamped until February, 1865. Then moved to Eastport, Miss., where it remained until July 3, 1865, when it was ordered back to Nashville, Tenn. Then to Decatur, Ala. Then marched, with General Hatch's expedition, to Montgomery, Ala., where it arrived July 25, 1865, and remained until the last of August, when it moved to Demopolis, Ala., remaining there 6 days. The Regiment was then divided—6 companies to remain, and 6 to march back to Montgomery. Remained there until the last of September, 1865, when the 6 companies at Montgomery were divided into detachments. Two companies marched to Opolika, Ala., 1 company to Tuskega, and the other 3 remained at Montgomery.

November 1, 1865, Regiment was ordered to march to Selma, Ala., to be mustered out of service.

Mustered out November 5, 1865, and ordered to Springfield, Ill., for final payment and discharge, where it arrived November 17, and received discharge November 20, 1865.

NINETY-FIRST REGIMENT INDIANA VOLUNTEERS.

The Ninety-First Regiment was recruited from the First Congressional District during the month of August, 1862, and rendezvoused at Evansville. Only seven companies were raised, and these were formed into a battalion, and mustered into service, with John Mehringer as Lieutenant Colonel, on the 1st of October, 1862. On the 10th, the battalion started for Henderson, Kentucky, and, upon its arrival there, detachments were sent to Madisonville and Smithland, where they remained, performing guard duty, and protecting that section of Kentucky from guerrilla raids, until the 15th of June, [illegible]

[illegible] Colonel Mehringer was promoted Colonel. On the 24th, the regiment moved to Nashville, and, after a short stay at that point, returned to Russellville, arriving there on the 20th of November. On the 23d, the regiment moved to Camp Nelson, and from thence to Point Burnside, Kentucky, where it remained until January, 1864.

On the 3d of January, 1864, the Ninety-First broke camp and marched toward Jonesboro', East Tennessee, and from thence moved to Cumberland Gap. On the 22d of February, company "A," under command of Captain Wise, had a sharp fight with a rebel force, twelve hundred strong, near the Gap. On the 17th of May, the regiment marched for Knoxville, and from thence moved to Cleveland, and then to Kingston, Georgia, to join Sherman's army, then moving upon the Atlanta campaign.

On the 3d of June, the regiment was assigned to the First Brigade, Second Division, Twenty-Third Army Corps, (General Schofield,) and left Kingston to join its corps, then near Acworth. On the 15th, the regiment was engaged in the fight that caused the enemy to abandon his strong position on Pine Mountain. Generals Thomas and Schofield advancing, found the enemy again strongly posted along a line of hills connecting Kenesaw and Lost Mountains. Our army pressed forward, constantly skirmishing in dense underbrush and forests, until the 22d, when two rebel corps sallied forth at New Hope Church and precipitated themselves upon a part of Hooker's and Schofield's corps. A desperate battle ensued, the enemy being finally repulsed, leaving his dead and wounded in our hands. The regiment took an active part in this battle. Until the 1st of July the regiment was constantly engaged in skirmishing with the enemy in his strong position on Kenesaw Mountain.

On the 7th, the regiment crossed the Chattahoochee river, with its Russellville, and from thence to Bowling Green and Burksville, in pursuit of the rebel chieftain John H. Morgan, then making a raid through Kentucky. Being unable to march as fast as the fleet-footed horses of John Morgan's command traveled, the pursuit ceased, the battalion marched to Russellville, and went into camp.

In the summer of 1863, authority having been given to recruit four regiments of six months' men, for infantry service, forty-three companies were raised, which left an overplus of three companies, and, on the 11th of September, these companies [illegible]

[illegible] pontoon bridge. The enemy, being thus threatened in his line of communications, crossed the Chattahoochee on the night of the 17th burning the bridges in his rear. Atlanta was now only eight miles distant, and our whole army safely on the right bank of the Chattahoochee. The men needed rest. So Sherman dispatched a cavalry force to strike the enemy's communications at important points. This was accomplished. On the 19th, the regiment was engaged at Decatur, Georgia, the whole line skirmishing heavily. On the 20th, the enemy made a sudden assault, resulting in the battle of Peach Tree Creek, in which the regiment was engaged. Another battle took place near Atlanta on the 22d, the enemy being repulsed.

The siege of Atlanta was vigorously pressed, our forces constantly advancing by parallels, until within easy artillery range of the besieged city. On the 3d of August demonstrations were made along the whole line, and on the 6th a severe engagement took place near Utoy Creek, the Ninety-first being engaged. On the 12th the regiment was transferred from the 1st to the 3d brigade, in the same division and corps, in which it had served since June 3d, 1864. On the 27th the regiment marched with the army in executing the grand movement by the right, which caused the evacuation of Atlanta. Gen. Schofield's corps struck the railroad a mile below Rough and Ready, and destroyed it for a great distance. The corps then moved toward Lovejoy's Station, and, upon arriving in front of that position, received definite intelligence that Atlanta had been abandoned by the enemy on the night of the 1st of September. The regiment then marched with its corps toward Atlanta, and, on the 8th of September, went into camp at Decatur, a few miles east of Atlanta. The parallel line of the rebellion had been broken by the force of the perpendicular blow struck by Grant at Vicksburg. Another perpendicular blow was struck upon part of the line by Sherman at Atlanta. It now only remained to strike with vigor the shattered remnants of the line.

On the 4th of October the regiment started with its corps in pursuit of Hood. It marched by the way of Kingston, Rome, Resaca, Snake Creek Gap, to Gaylesville, and Cedar Bluffs, when the pursuit ceased and the corps was detached from Sherman's army, and ordered to report to General Thomas. Moving north the regiment arrived at Chattanooga on the 5th of November, and moved from thence to Nashville, Columbia and Centerville, and then back to Nashville. The regiment took part in the battle of Franklin on the 30th of November, and in the battles in front of Nashville on the 15th and 16th of December.

From Nashville the regiment marched to Clifton, Tennessee. On the 17th of December it left Clifton, by steamer, for Cincinnati, Ohio. From thence the troops were conveyed by rail to Washington, D. C., where they arrived on the 28th of January, 1865. From Washington the regiment moved by steamers to Wilmington, North Carolina, and reached the mouth of Cape Fear River, February 9th, where its corps landed upon the peninsula near Fort Fisher, and after a few engagements captured Wilmington. The regiment marched thence with its corps to Goldsboro and Raleigh, reaching the latter place on the 14th of April. Here it remained in camp until the 3d of May, when it moved for Salisbury, where it arrived on the 8th.

The Ninety-First remained in camp at Salisbury, until the 26th of June, 1865, when it was mustered out of the service of the United States, at that place, and left for Indianapolis. Its remaining recruits were transferred to the 120th, 124th and 128th Indiana regiments, with which organizations they continued to serve till their muster out.

The Ninety-First left for the field with an aggregate of 635 officers and men. The three companies of six months men, assigned to the regiment in September, 1863, were discharged upon the expiration of their term of service. The regiment then numbered but seven companies until the winter of 1864, when three companies were recruited for one year's service, and assigned as companies "H," "I," and "K." These companies were among the remaining recruits that were transferred to other regiments upon its final muster out. The regiment has lost eighty-one in killed and wounded, and returned to the State with nineteen officers and three hundred and fifteen men. Upon its arrival at Indianapolis, the regiment was greeted with an ovation in the State House Grove, and welcomed with addresses by Governor Morton and others, partook of a sumptuous dinner at the Soldier's Home, and retired from "war's stern alarums."

FIFTY-EIGHTH REGIMENT INDIANA VOLUNTEERS.

The Fifty-Eighth Regiment was organized at Princeton in October, 1861, with Henry M. Carr as Colonel, and left for the field in December, crossing the Ohio river at Louisville. It was assigned to Wood's division of Buell's army, and during the winter of 1861 and 1862 marched through Central Kentucky, stopping a few weeks at Bardstown, Lebanon, Spring Garden and Bowling Green. On the 1st of March it reached Nashville, and remained there until the 1st of April, when it started for Pittsburg Landing, which place was reached on the evening of the second day's battle of Shiloh. The regiment rested here for awhile and then engaged in the siege of Corinth. After the evacuation it marched into Northern Alabama, and thence to Shelbyville, Tennessee. From Shelbyville it moved to Decherd, where it lay for a few weeks and then marched with Buell's army to Nashville, and thence to Louisville, reaching the last named city on the 1st of October. It immediately started back in pursuit of Bragg's army, reaching Nashville in the latter part of November.

On the 26th of December the regiment marched toward Murfreesboro, and on the day following it charged the rebels at Lavergne. On the 31st of December, 1862, and 1st and 2d of January, 1863, it participated in the battle of Stone river, being attached to Hascall's Brigade of Wood's Division of the Twenty-First Corps, and losing eighteen killed, eighty-seven wounded and five missing—making a total loss of one hundred and ten. After this engagement the regiment remained in the vicinity of Murfreesboro until the movement against Tullahoma was commenced, when it moved with the army in that direction. It was in the brigade that was the first to enter Chattanooga, and was engaged in the battle of Chicamauga from its commencement to its close, losing in killed, wounded and missing, one hundred and seventy-one out of an aggregate of four hundred engaged.

Falling back with the army to Chattanooga the regiment remained there, and was engaged in the battle of Chattanooga on the 23d of November, and was in Wagner's Brigade of Sheridan's Division in the charge on Mission Ridge on the 25th of November, losing five killed and sixty-one wounded. Immediately after it made a forced march to Knoxville, which place was then besieged by Longstreet's army. During the winter of 1863 and 1864, the regiment was encamped among the hills of East Tennessee without tents, and only such rations as could be gathered from a poor and scanty country. On the 24th of January, 1864, the regiment re-enlisted as a veteran organization, and on the 4th of March arrived at Indianapolis on veteran furlough.

Upon its return to Chattanooga in April, it was assigned to the Engineer Department, and immediately took charge of the pontoon trains of Sherman's army. The regiment did all the bridging for Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta, bridging some of the rivers as many as sixteen times, and often under the fire of the enemy. In October, 1864, one hundred and seventy veterans and returned recruits of the Tenth Indiana were transferred to this regiment, and continued to serve with the Fifty-Eighth until its final discharge.

When General Sherman's army was divided at Atlanta, in November, the Fifty-eighth was assigned to duty with the Army of Georgia, which was composed of the Fourteenth and Twentieth Corps, and was commanded by Major General Slocum. This regiment did all the bridging and repairing of roads for that army during the campaign from Atlanta to Savahnah, including a bridge across the Savannah river, opposite the city, this bridge being over three thousand feet in length. On the 31st of December, 1864, the non-veterans of the regiment were mustered out at Savannah and returned home.

On the campaign through South Carolina to Goldsboro, North Carolina, the Fifty-eighth did all the bridging for the Army of Georgia, including a second bridge over the Savannah, at Sister's Ferry, where the men had to work, for six days, in water from two to four feet deep, in clearing out and repairing the road. In this campaign the regiment made over sixteen thousand feet of bridges. While attached to the Engineer Department, though not in any heavy engagements, the regiment was not free from exposure, being the first on the banks of streams and the last to leave, and the greater part of the time its work was done after night, with the enemy on the opposite bank.

After the surrender of Johnson's army the regiment marched from Goldsboro to Washington City, by the way of Richmond, bridging all the streams on the route except the James river. After remaining at Washington for a brief period, it was transferred to Louisville, Kentucky, where, on the 25th of July, 1865, it was mustered out of service. Proceeding to Indianapolis, with five hundred and fifty men, it was present at a reception given to returned troops, in the Capitol grounds, on the 27th of July, on which occasion the regiment was addressed by Lieutenant Governor Conrad Baker and others. In a few days afterwards it was finally discharged from service. In July, 1865, ninety men were transferred to the regiment from the One Hundred and First Indiana, being the recruits remaining in service after the muster out of that organization. These were mustered out with the Fifty-eighth. During its term of service the regiment lost in battle and by disease two hundred and sixty-five men.

FRANCIS MARION COX

Francis Marion Cox, for 32 years a citizen of Clay county died at the home of his son, Orley Cox, near Greenway, Sunday, at the age of 89 years. He had been in poor health for several months due to his age. d 1938

The deceased came to this county and purchased land near Payne schoolhouse where he and his family lived for a number of years. Before his wife's death they purchased property near the school house in west Piggott and lived there until her death. Since then he had made his home among his children. He was a highly respected citizen, and while on the farm, was a successful farmer.

Funeral services were held at the General Baptist church in East Piggott, Monday at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. R. Book. Interment was in the Piggott cemetery.

The following obituary was read at the funeral:

Francis Marion Cox was born near Eldorado, Illinois, February 10th, 1849 and departed this life Aug. 21st 1938, age 89 years, 6 months and 10 days. He was married to Missouri Kathrine Wilson and to this union ten children were born, seven sons three daughters.

The children were all born in Illinois. He professed faith in Christ at a very early age and together with his wife they joined the General Baptist church at the old Mt. Pleasant church near Texas City, and when they changed their residence to Arkansas in 1906, they did not forget their church relationship, but united with the General Baptist church here. They have been true and faithful charter members.

He leaves eight children, 65 grandchildren, 39 great-grandchildren, two brothers and three sisters, besides a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Dear father, thy life
Has been our light
To guide us on our way.
And when the good Lord calls us,
May we hear the Master say,
"Well done good and faithful servant."

MRS. F. M. COX DIES NEAR GREENWAY

Mrs. F. M. Cox, aged 79 years, died at the home of her son, Orley Cox, near Greenway, Thursday morning at 8 o'clock following a third stroke of paralysis. The first occurred eight years ago while she and her husband lived in west Piggott. For six years, Mrs. Cox had been bedfast, and for two years she and her husband had made their home with two of their children, Mrs. James Underwood in Piggott and Mrs. Orley Cox, Greenway.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox moved to near Piggott 26 years ago and purchased a farm near Payne schoolhouse. They had lived in and near Piggott since coming to this county from Eldorado, Illinois.

As we go to press, funeral arrangements had not been made, it being delayed until children from Illinois and Michigan arrived.

Alvin P. Cox, 81, who lived at 701 Panama street in this city, passed away at 10 o'clock last night at the Pearce hospital where he had been a patient for the past 10 days.

A well known resident of this community, he had been a school teacher in the earlier years of his life. He had served as city commissioner for the city of Eldorado and had more recently served as police magistrate, retiring before the end of his second term due to ill health.

He had been an active member of the First Methodist church of this city for many years.

Survivors include his wife, Nora, one son, Charles C. Cox of Dearborn, Mich., and a daughter, Mrs Kelly (Kathleen) Morris of Eldorado, five grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Also four brothers, Austin Cox of this city, Harvey Cox of Omaha, Orley and Everett Cox of Piggott, Ark., and a sister, Mrs. Ethel Underwood of Piggott, and the following stepchildren:

Frank, Doy and Dewey Binkley and Mrs. Duke Gass of Salem, Ky., and Mrs. Louella Brider of St. Louis.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the First Methodist church, conducted by a former pastor, Rev. C. C. Lowe of Bridgeport, with interment in Poplar cemetery northeast of Eldorado.

TRAGIC ACCIDENT CLAIMS TWO LIVES

MR. AND MRS. ORAN GREEN STEWART KILLED EARLY LAST THURSDAY EVENING

Tragic death spread a pall of gloom over this entire area Thursday evening, when it was learned that Mr. and Mrs. Oran G. Stewart of St. Francis had been killed. This prominent, highly respected couple died almost instantly when their Ford pick-up truck was struck by the Cotton Belt Local about 7 p. m. that evening. The accident occurred at a crossing in down-town St. Francis, (The first crossing south of the river trestle).

Earlier that evening the Stewarts had enjoyed a supper at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edward Ort and husband in St. Francis. They had with them for the occasion, their son, Private Finis Stewart of Camp Chaffee, Ark., who was home on furlough.

Shortly after the supper, Pvt. Stewart left for Poplar Bluff, Mo., to catch a train back to his army base.

About thirty minutes after he left, the Stewarts left the home of their daughter, to drive to their home, a short distance away.

We could not learn for sure if there were any eye witnesses to the accident, Apparently the Stewart truck was driven directly into the path of the freight before it was seen

The northbound train struck the truck just back of the truck cab, Mrs. Stewart was instantly killed, and Mr. Stewart died a few minutes later.

The truck was badly demolished as it was knocked a distance of about 40 or 50 feet along the east side of the tracks.

The Stewarts, both lifelong residents of Clay County, were among the most highly respected and beloved couples in their community. Mr. Stewart had retired from active farming, due to his health, and they had been living in St. Francis about two years.

The funeral was held at the St. Francis Methodist Church, Sunday, December 13, 1953, at 2 p. m. conducted by Rev. Kern Johnson and Rev. Robt. L. Fox. Burial was made in the Piggott cemetery, with Russell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

The following obituary was read at the services:

Mr. Oran Green Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shade Stewart, was born May 19, 1890 and died December 10, 1953.

Mary Cathern Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marione Cox, was born, April 17, 1891 and died December 10, 1953.

They were united in marriage March 2, 1909.

To this union 12 children were born of which eight survive namely, Howard of Piggott; Marion of Campbell, Mo.; Mrs. Lorene Parker of Pollard; Verna Lee Branson of Detroit, Mich., Eugene of Goshen, Ind., Mrs. Imogene Ort of St. Francis, Delain of Chicago, Ill., and Finis Ray stationed at Fort Smith, Ark., with the United States Army.

Surviving also are 22 grand children and two great grandchildren.

Death of Mrs. George Cleveland.

About 8 o'clock on Monday evening, February 17, 1913, Mrs. George Cleveland died at the Stillwater hospital. She had been a sufferer for a number of years and almost bedfast for about eleven weeks, but no one thought her so seriously ill, so her death came as a great shock to the community in which she has lived for a good many years. She was always in cheerful spirits, although we now know she suffered far more than family or friends realized, but she bore all the suffering patiently. She was taken to the Stillwater hospital Saturday morning, February 15, where on Sunday morning a large fibroid tumor was removed. She came from under the influence of the anesthetic but had not the strength to rally from the shock. She was not afraid to die, and was prepared to meet her God. Her husband and youngest daughter, Mrs. Anna Coleman, were with her during her illness. Everett reached here in time for the funeral. Her daughter, Mrs. Blanch Morris, was unable to come.

The funeral was held at the home east of Stillwater, on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Despite the rain, making it a very bad afternoon, a large number of friends came to show their respect.

She was a loving and devoted wife and mother, and a good friend when friends are most needed. Friends of the family sent some beautiful floral offerings.

Emma Williams was born in Gibson county, Indana, April 22, 1863; died February 17, 1913, in Stillwater, Ok., making her 49 years, 9 months and 26 days old. She was married to George Cleveland June 29, 1882, at Arkansas City, Kan. Of this union were born three children, all of whom are living, Everett of Randlett; Mrs. Blanch Morris, of Longmont, Colo., and Mrs. Anna Coleman, of Cushing.

G. C. Cleveland Dies Wednesday

George Cass Cleveland, 85, employe of the Katz Department store, died in Municipal hospital Wednesday morning.

Services will be Friday at 2:30 p.m. in the First Christian church with Rev. Romans Smith in charge. Burial will be in Fairlawn under the direction of the Stroud funeral home.

Cleveland had been with the Katz store here for the past 25 years. He had been a resident of Payne county since 1889.

He was born in Poseyville, Ind., July 9, 1861, the son of William and Nancy Cleveland.

He was married to Emma Williams at Arkansas City, Kas., June 29, 1883. He came to Kansas from Indiana in a covered wagon in the spring of 1889. He made the run April 22, 1889.

He stopped on what proved to be a school quarter. He then bought a relinquishment three and one half miles northeast of Stillwater on which he homesteaded and lived until he moved to Stillwater in 1917.

His wife preceded him in death February, 1913. While living on the farm he was a member of the board of education in their school district. He also served as deputy sheriff of Payne county and was city constable here 12 years.

He was a member of the First Christian church.

Surviving him are one son, Everett Cleveland, N. Husband and Boomer lake and two daughters, Mrs. Blanche Morris of Stafford, Kas., and Mrs. E. C. Dickerson of Tulsa. Ten grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren also survive.

Bearers will be A. R. Boswell, William Brooks, I. M. Cole, Charles Janson, Morris Isenberg and Jack Katz.

CLEVELAND FAMILY

George Cass Cleveland entered present Payne County with The Run on April 22, 1889.

Newspaper clippings were submitted by Carolyn Cash Lewis, whose great-grandfathers were George Cleveland and Thomas German.

Another story that is remembered in the Cleveland family:

George Cass Cleveland was traveling in Oklahoma. The Indians were charging a toll to cross the river. Mr. Cleveland had a horse tied behind his wagon. The Indian grabbed the reins and wouldn't let him cross until he paid extra toll for the horse. Mr. Cleveland reached down, hit him under the chin, knocked him into the water, and drove on across.

Submitted by Carolyn Cash Lewis; Shawnee, Kansas.

INCIDENTS TOLD OF HISTORIC DAY

[Published in Stillwater (Okla.) Daily News Press on April 18, 1954; reprinted from an earlier issue.]

Back in Indiana in the '80s, word began to drift around that there was land to be had in Oklahoma and that there would be a "run" for it sometime in the near future.

On a little farm in Indiana, George C. Cleveland and his wife debated whether or not they would take their family and seed some of that land. Finally, in 1887, the Cleveland family, together with 16 other families from that region left home and traveled westward to Arkansas City, Kansas. They remained there for two years, Cleveland doing odd jobs to keep his family, until 1889 when it was announced that the unassigned lands in Oklahoma Territory would be opened to the public on April 22.

The Clevelands left Arkansas City about five days before the Run was to begin. On the appointed day, April 22, 1889, men of all ages - rich and poor, gathered at the starting line. The U.S. Army stationed soldiers along the line who were to fire guns at 12:00 o'clock noon, signaling that the land was open. As far as the eye could see, there were men on every kind of transportation available - horseback, wagon and even oxen teams. Mr. Cleveland started the Run about five miles north of Stillwater. Most of the crowd, however, began the Run near the present sites of Mulhall and Orlando.

Cleveland tells some interesting incidents that occurred on that historic day.

One man bought a race horse and paid $150 for it, in order to be the first to reach a certain place where he wished to stake a claim. When the gun was fired at noon he struck out, confident that he would be the first one there. But, as fate would have it, when he arrived at the site which he had chosen, he found another man there ahead of him who had made the Run with a yoke of oxen, with which he had already plowed an acre of ground. Whether the story is true or not, Mr. Cleveland leaves to the reader to decide.

Another incident, not quite so humorous, concerns two men who arrived at the same site at the same time. They decided the ownership of the land with guns; and the man who lost, says Cleveland, was the first person to be buried in the cemetery east of Stillwater.

Cleveland himself staked a claim for a farm, only to find later that it was on section 16 which, together with section 36, had been given to Oklahoma Territory by Congress for common school funds. After the Run, however, he purchased 160 acres, located two miles east and one mile north of Stillwater, for $130. The deed to this land was the first one issued, and it was signed by Grover Cleveland, who was President at that time. The original deed was lost in a fire which destroyed the wooden Stillwater courthouse, but the deed was replaced in about six months.

When the '89ers were finally settled on their new land, they began to look around at their neighbors and to get acquainted with them. There were six families in proximity to the Cleveland farm. The most usual method of getting acquainted was for one family to ask another family to accompany them to Sunday school. The family would hitch up the wagon and go with the neighbor to the banks of Brush Creek. There was a large oak tree under which they held their meetings. The wagons had spring seats in them and these were placed on the ground around the tree, so the settlers could listen to the sermon in comfort. Not long after the Run the settlers joined together and constructed a log building which was used for school and church.

The settlers had to make wagon trips to Guthrie for whatever mail they should receive and for the few groceries they could afford to buy. The six families, together with Cleveland's family, would alternate in making the trip and bring back supplies for the neighbors. In that way it was possible to make trips to Guthrie more often.

Times were very hard for the first several years. The settlers lived in caves or sod houses and usually raised what they ate and wore. The second year after the Run is known as the "turnip year." Everyone ate turnips - even the cows and horses. The cows were satisfied enough and ate the turnips without having to be encouraged, but the horses' turnips had to be salted. At first, they would only lick off the salt but they became hungrier, and ate the turnips also.

Today Mr. Cleveland is the only living person remaining of the group of men who brought their families from Indiana to Oklahoma Territory in 1889. He will be 81 years of age in July, 1943. He still owns his farm, although he makes his home in Stillwater, where he is employed in a department store. His wife passed away in 1913, but his three children are still living, one residing in Dodge City, Kansas, one in Tulsa and one in Stillwater.

Incidents Told Of Historic Day

By CHARLOTTE WHITFORD
From Historical Files
of Stillwater Library

Back in Indiana in the '80's, word began to drift around that there was land to be had in Oklahoma and that there would be a "run" for it sometime in the near future.

On a little farm in Indiana, George C. Cleveland and his wife debated whether or not they would take their family and seed some of that land. Finally, in 1887, the Cleveland family, together with 16 other families from that region, left home and traveled westward to Arkansas City, Kansas. They remained there for two years, Cleveland doing odd jobs to keep his family, until 1889, when it was announced that the unassigned lands in Oklahoma Territory would be opened to the public on April 22.

The Clevelands left Arkansas City about five days before the Run was to begin. On the appointed day, April 22, 1889, men of all ages—rich and poor, gathered at the starting line. The U. S. Army stationed soldiers along the line who were to fire guns at 12:00 o'clock noon, signaling that the land was open. As far as the eye could see, there were men on every kind of transportation available—horseback, wagon and even oxen teams. Mr. Cleveland started the Run about five miles north of Stillwater. Most of the crowd, however, began the Run near the present sites of Mulhall and Orlando.

Incidents Told

Cleveland tells some interesting incidents that occurred on that historic day.

One man bought a race horse and paid $150 for it, in order to be the first to reach a certain place where he wished to stake a claim. When the gun was fired at noon he struck out, confident that he would be the first one there. But, as fate would have it, when he arrived at the site which he had chosen, he found another man there ahead of him who had made the Run with a yoke of oxen, with which he had already plowed an acre of ground. Whether the story is true or not, Mr. Cleveland leaves to the reader to decide.

Another incident, not quite so humorous, concerns two men who arrived at the same site at the same time. They decided the ownership of the land with guns; and the man who lost, says Cleveland, was the first person to be buried in the cemetery east of Stillwater.

Stakes Claim

Cleveland himself staked a claim for a farm, only to find later that it was on section 16 which, together with section 36, had been given to Oklahoma Territory by Congress for common school funds. After the Run, however, he purchased 160 acres, located two miles east and one mile north of Stillwater, for $130. The deed to this land was the first one issued, and it was signed by Grover Cleveland, who was President at that time. The original deed was lost in a fire which destroyed the wooden Stillwater courthouse, but the deed was replaced in about six months.

When the 89's were finally settled on their new land, they began to look around at their neighbors and to get acquainted with them. There were six families in proximity to the Cleveland farm. The most usual method of getting acquainted was for one family other family and ask them to accompany them to Sunday school. The family would hitch up the wagon and go with the neighbor to the banks of Brush Creek. There was a large oak tree under which they held their meetings. The wagons had spring seats in them and these were placed on the ground around the tree, so the settlers could listen to the sermon in comfort. Not long after the Run the settlers joined together and constructed a log building which was used for school and church.

The settlers had to make wagon trips to Guthrie for whatever mail they should receive and for the few groceries they could afford to buy. The six families, together with Cleveland's family, would alternate in making the trip and bring back supplies for the neighbors. In that way it was possible to make trips to Guthrie more often.

Times were very hard for the first several years. The settlers lived in caves or sod houses and usually raised what they ate and wore. The second year after the Run is known as the "turnip year." Everyone ate turnips—even the cows and horses. The cows were satisfied enough and ate the turnips without having to be encouraged, but the horses' turnips had to be salted. At first, they would only lick off the salt but they became hungrier, and ate the turnips also.

Today Mr. Cleveland is the only living person remaining of the group of men who brought their families from Indiana to Oklahoma Territory in 1889. He will be 81 years of age in July, 1943. JOHN CLEVELAND (128) AND ELIZABETH COFFEY (129)*

John Cleveland, son of Alexander Cleveland and Milly Presley, was born July 31, 1714 in Gloucester Co., Virginia and baptized August 24 of the same year. He grew up in Virginia, living in various places with his family. As a young man he was employed building houses, a profession known at that time as "house-joiner."

John married Elizabeth Coffey April 20, 1734. The daughter of Edward Coffey and Ann Powell, Elizabeth was born circa 1714 in Essex Co., Virginia. After their marriage, the couple settled in Blue Run, Orange Co. where they remained for the remainder of their lives. There John owned a large plantation, having been deeded land in the area in 1734. In that year he bought one hundred acres on "Branches of Blue Run" and also part of another sixteen hundred acres.

John and Elizabeth had a large family, listed as follows: Mary, m. Bernard Franklin; John (our ancestor), b.c. 1735, m. Molly Mc Cann; Benjamin, b. 1738, m. Mary Graves; Elizabeth, b. 1742, m. David Gillaspy; Robert, b. 1744 m. 1st Alice Mathis, 2nd Sallie Johnson; Jeremiah, b.c. 1746 or 1753, m. Mary Gentrey; Patty or Patsy, b.c. 1750, m. James Smith; Reuben, b.c. 1752; Larkin, b.c. 1748 or 1756, m. Frances, surname unknown..... Most of these children moved to North or South Carolina. Several of the boys became famous during the Revolutionary War, notably Benjamin.

*Some sources have confused Elizabeth with her sister Martha, saying it was the latter who married John Cleveland.

See Interesting Side Lights, Colonel Benjamin Cleveland.

Both John and Elizabeth died on their Blue Run estate. His will, dated November 7, 1778, was proved in Orange County court on November 26 of that year. The date of Elizabeth's death is uncertain; one source gives 1770 and another gives 1805.

Sources: 23, 29, 31, 34, 35, 68, 70, 83.

EDWARD COFFEY (258) AND ANN POWELL (259)*

Our earliest known Coffey family member is Edward Coffey who was born in Ireland circa 1670. He probably came to Virginia from his homeland during the Williamite Confiscation around 1690 or a few years later. It is believed that Edward was transported by Edward Mosely, as an indentured servant, which is discussed in the section entitled "The Family As A Whole."

The first record of Edward in Virginia appears to be the will of Edward Mosely, dated January 6, 1699, in which he gives his "servant Ed Coffe one heifer of 2 years old." The will was probated in Essex Co. court April 16, 1700 and on September 10 of that year Edward received a judgment from the Mosely estate for his freedom, corn, and clothes.

Edward married Ann Powell around 1699 in Essex Co. Ann, the daughter of Thomas Powell and Mary Place, was born in that same county circa 1683-85. Remaining in Essex after their marriage, Edward had land on branches of Occupatia Creek there and became a tobacco planter.

*Through this couple we are related by marriage to Daniel Boone; see the section on "Famous Relations."....Coffey is sometimes spelled Coffee or Coffe.

An early genealogist made a mistake in copying the name of a John Coffin or Scoffin from a land patent in Virginia. The name was erroneously given as John Coffey and this mistake was perpetuated by others. Some genealogists went so far as to propose that this fictional John Coffey was the father or grandfather of our Edward Coffey and gave him one of two wives, either Mary Jolliffe or Rebecca Ireland. Coffey and Coffin/Scoffin are two entirely different families and there is no valid evidence of a John Coffey who was our ancestor.

The six children of Edward and Ann were all born in Essex and are as follows: John, b.c. 1700, m. Jane or Jean Graves; Edward, b.c. 1700, m. Grace Cleveland; Martha, also known as Patsy, b.c. 1702, m. Joshua Stapp or Stepp; Annister, also known as Ann, b.c. 1708; Austin or Austes, b.c. 1710, m. Miss Chenault, sometimes spelled Shenalt; Elizabeth, our ancestor, b.c. 1714, m. John Cleveland.....The first two children, John and Edward, both born in 1700 were possibly twins.

On February 14, 1716, Edward Coffey made a will which was proved November 20 of the same year in Essex. We know that he died before July 16 of that year because on that date his sons John and Edward concluded a land transaction for two hundred acres, and one third of it was set aside for their mother Ann as a widow's dower. At his death, the inventory of Edward's estate listed a valuation of forty-five pounds, ten shillings, and nine pence. His will, which follows at the end of this sketch, names his wife and children.

After Edward's death Ann married Robert Dooling or Dulin, some time before March 19, 1717. The couple had two children: William, b.c. 1720 and Thomas, b.c. 1725. In her will, dated October 30, 1744 in St. Ann's Parish, Essex Co., Ann leaves all her possessions to the two "Dooling" boys, her daughter Annister Coffey, and Annister's son, James. The will was proved December 18, 1744.

The above will of Edward Coffey has been copied exactly as I found it. Apparently unable to write, he made his mark on the document. The many errors must be attributed to the person who wrote the will for him.

FRANCIS PLACE (1038) AND ANN WILLIAMS (1039)

Francis Place is the earliest Place family member known to us. His wife was Ann Williams, parentage unknown. The only child we know of this couple is our ancestor, Mary, who was born about 1648-9 and married Thomas Powell.

It is believed that Francis and Ann lived in Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. Francis owned land in Essex Co. of the same colony. He patented three hundred acres on the "north side of the Freshes of the Rappahannock River" on September 7, 1654 for transporting six persons. On August 11, 1655 Francis made his will and in it he conveyed the above mentioned land and some cattle by deed of gift to "my daughter Mary Place when she arrives at eighteen years." Francis died prior to 1667.

THOMAS POWELL (518) AND MARY PLACE (519)

Thomas Powell is the earliest known member of our Powell line, although some sources report that his father was a William Powell who married Elizabeth, surname unknown. The Powells, of English descent, settled at an early date in Virginia. Thomas married Mary Place who was born about 1648-9 and was the daughter of Francis Place and Ann Williams.

The only known child of Thomas and Mary was our ancestor, Ann, born circa 1683-85 and married Edward Coffey. The family lived in Rappahannock Co., Virginia. A Major Thomas Powell of that county was wounded in the taking of Jamestown in Bacon's Rebellion in 1676.* We have no proof, but it might well have been our Thomas. On September 30, 1666 or 67, Mary and Thomas sold some land she inherited from her father for "nine barrells of good Indian corn and divers other considerations."

Thomas died around 1700, for on March 10 of that year he made a will which was probated April 10, 1701. At that time he and Mary lived in Sittingbourne Parish, Essex Co. The will bequeathed one shilling to his daughter, Ann. Mary died in mid-December 1710 in Richmond Co., Virginia.

*Bacon's Rebellion was a revolt of Virginia colonists against the government which led to colonial reform.

EDWARD COFFEY (258) AND ANN POWELL (259)

We had previously known that Edward Coffey owned land on branches of Occupatia Creek in Essex County, Virginia, where he was a tobacco planter. We now have information about one of his land transactions in that area--On February 7, 1706 or 07, Edward bought one hundred eighteen acres of land for two thousand, three hundred sixty pounds of tobacco. On November 17, 1714, his wife, Ann Powell, relinquished her dower rights to some property involved in a transaction. It is now known that this couple resided in St. Anne's Parish, Essex County.

THOMAS POWELL (518) AND MARY PLACE (519)

Although we had previously known that Mary Place's birthdate was about 1648-9, the birthdate of her husband, Thomas Powell, was unknown to us. A new source reports his birthdate as around 1640.

Cunningham & Co.; £209.13.7, Bogle, Somerville & Co. (Falmouth Store). At the peace he possessed no land and two or three slaves which were incumbered for the security of debts contracted before that time. Some people who did not know these slaves were subject to any incumbrance were inclined to believe he was solvent at the peace; others who knew of the debts he owed and the incumbrances on his property had no hesitation in pronouncing him insolvent at that period. His property at the peace was not equal to the payment of one fourth of his debt. As soon as the courts were opened he was, in the language of my informant, torn all to pieces by executions which swept the whole of his property. Some time before 1786 he was generally reputed insolvent. In that year he married his second wife, Miss Dolly Gaines, who unfortunately had violated her chastity and who married Hawkins in opposition to the wishes of all her friends. By her he got some property but it was no sooner in his hands than it was in the Sheriff's. About 1794 or 1795 he went to Kentucky, quite insolvent, and settled in Green River. The Rev. John Price of Fayette Co., Ky., married a sister of William Hawkins' first wife. Capt. Richard Gaines of Culpeper is a relation of William Hawkins' second wife.

[P. 111] George Hutchinson, Orange. £14.1.2, Robert Jardine; £4.6.11, George McCall & Co. He removed from near the dividing line of Orange and Spotsylvania about ten years ago to Kentucky in moderate circumstances. He now lives in Harrison County where he has considerably improved his estate.

John Cleveland, Albemarle. £12.7.3, Wm. Cunningham & Co. (Fredericksburg Store). He died in Orange in 1774 and left a moderate estate. His acting executor is Bartlett Bennett, now of the same county. John Cleveland on his death bed desired that this debt might be paid and the executor as soon as he could raise any money from the estate went down to Fredericksburg to pay it, but could find no person to receive it. He has never had any application for payment and has given up nearly all the estate to the legatees but says he will pay the debt with interest, except during the war, as soon as possible.

[Pp. 111-12] Hugh Houston, Spotsylvania. £2.8.0, William Cunningham & Co. (Falmouth Store). He died in 1774. His personal estate was insolvent before the peace but there were some valuable lots in Fredericksburg belonging to his representatives, who have all removed to Georgia.

[P. 112] Benjamin Hoems, Orange. £17.15.11, William Cunningham & Co. (Falmouth Store). The name of the debtor is sometimes spelled Holmes and sometimes Hoomes.

(1) Alexander Cleveland, Jr. married Margaret Doolittle. Margaret was born Ca. 1710, probably in Gloucester County, and died about 1785 in Albemarle County.

(3) Grace Cleveland married Edward Coffey who was born in Essex County, Virginia.

(6) There are some questions about Jeremiah Cleveland being a son.

(7) Jane Cleveland married Chesley Coffey.

(9) There are also questions about Micajah Cleveland being a son.

(2) The family of JOHN CLEVELAND, SR. has been traced by the southern descendants, and primarily those of Colonel Benjamin Cleveland, so emphasis has been placed on his direct line. John married ELIZABETH COFFEY who was born Ca. 1714 in Essex County, Virginia, and died at the age of 90 which would have been about 1804. John and Elizabeth had nine known children. They lived, raised their family, and died on his plantation on Blue Run, Orange County, Virginia. Elizabeth was a daughter of Edward Coffey (sometimes Coffee) and Ann Powell. Edward Coffey, born Ca. 1670, probably in Ireland, died before 16 July 1716. His 14 February 1716 will was proven in November of that year. He married Ann Powell Ca. 1699 in Essex County, Virginia. Ann was born 1684 and died 1726. She was a daughter of Thomas Powell and Mary Place, who was a daughter of Francis Place and Ann Williams. The known children of Edward Coffey and Ann Powell were:

1. John Coffey, born 1704, died 31 March 1775 in Albemarle Co. He married Jane Graves, daughter of John and Hannah.

2. Edward Coffey, twin of John, married Grace Cleveland.

4. Annester (Ann), born Ca. 1710, married a Shenault.

5. Austin, born Ca. 1712, also married a Shenault.

6. Elizabeth Coffey, born Ca. 1714 in Essex County, died about 1804 in Orange County. She married John Cleveland Sr. on 20 April 1734.

In the name of God Aman I Edward Coffey being in bedd of sickness but in perfect sense & membrey thanks bee to God; I Edward Cofey do bequeath this to bee my Last Will & Testament,-I leave all my land to my two suns John Cofey & Edward Cofey equall to be divided

John Cleveland, of Spotsylvania County, planter, bought 100 acres of a 1600-acre patent on Blue Run adjoining Thomas Chew, Alexander Cleveland Jr., and Hancock Lee. Dated 18 March 1735. On 17 February 1735, John was appointed overseer of a new road to be laid from Piney Mountain Run to the ridge between Blue Run and Petty's Creek. Alexander Cleveland Jr. was to assist. John was not getting enough help so on 16 March 1736 he entered the following petition:

Petition of John Cleveland that Your Worships were Last Court pleased to make an order for clearing a road towards James River mountains wherein your petitioner is appointed surveyor of the same in order to clear from the Piny Mountain Run upwards to about six miles and but a very weak gang to go through with it, one of which being a schoolmaster and not a laboring tithable is not obliged to the duty of clearing roads, and Edward Franklin also being surveyor of the lower part of the said road from Octonia Mill to the said Piny Mountain Run has about fifteen hands under him to clear about three miles at most in a road already cleared, whereas the road your petitioner has to clear is mostly through the woods and a very bad way and so many ways marked that your petitioner knows not which is the right way. Therefore he prays an order for another view on the said road, for Edward Franklin in favour to Head Lynch and to avoid going through his land has marked a very bad way where must be made three bridges, whereas if it were marked through Lynch's land it would be a very good way and no need for making any bridges. Petitioner also begs Your Worships may be pleased to appoint your petitioner his bounds and grant that Edward Franklin, Laurence Franklyn and his son Benjamin, with William Land may be taken from the lower part of the said road to join your petitioner's gang for though Edward Franklyn be appointed a surveyor of the road yet he lives higher up the road than William Bryan or Phillip Bush. Your petitioner lives four miles above the Piny Mountain Run and Laurence Franklyn and William Land live higher. Therefore your petitioner thinks it is a very great hardship that they should clear the lower part when your petitioner and others that live lower down must be obliged to clear the upper part. And there are Michael Pearson, George Head, and Robert Deering as proper persons for a surveyor on the lower part. The bounds your petitioner prays for are from the Blew Run up the Octonia Line to the Beaverdam Run, thence up the said run to the county line, thence down the county line to the Blew Run, from thence to the Octonia Line again. Filed March 16, 1736.

The petition was approved on 21 September 1736 with William Bryan as overseer.(Orange County Court Order Book 1, pages 109 and 125).

John Sr., in his will of 1 November 1778, mentions three daughters: Mary Franklin, Betty Claxley, and Patty Smith; and five sons: Benjamin, John, Robert, Jeremiah, and Rueben (deceased according to the will), but son Larkin was omitted. In the life of Thomas Jefferson Rusk, by R.T. Jaynes, the author list for John Sr.: John, Benjamin, Robert, Jeremiah, Larkin, Mary, and a daughter born about 1736 who married a Gillespie. In Draper's work on the Battle of King's Mountain, it is mentioned that Colonel Benjamin Cleveland had brothers Robert and Martin. Perhaps Martin was a second name for one of the sons. The name Larkin has remained in the Cleveland line for generations. From these and other sources, the family of JOHN CLEVELAND, SR. and ELIZABETH COFFEY has been constructed on the next page.

Elizabeth Coffey (Marvin Coffey)

Genealogical records often get confused and many have confused Elizabeth and Martha, saying it was the latter who married John Cleveland. However, it definitely was the younger Coffey daughter, Elizabeth, whom John Cleveland married. This couple lived most of their lives at Blue Run, Orange county Virginia and were the parents of several famous boys, most notably Colonel Benjamin Cleveland of Revolutionary War fame.[35] The Coffeys and Clevelands were neighbors in Virginia and later in North Carolina and there were at least 2 other Coffey-Cleveland marriages. Because of this close relationship I have devoted a chapter (6) to them in addition to some information in chapters 5 and 7.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am compiling information for a multi-volume genealogical encyclopedia focused on the Southern Clevelands, descendants of Alexander and Milly Presley Cleveland of Virginia.

Contained within material I received from Heritage Papers in Marietta, GA, was a May 11, 1988, article by Ron Barnett concerning three Cleveland graves on a hill overlooking the SC welcome center. A local historical society had requested that the cemetery containing these three graves be made into a historical park, and officials were considering the request. I would like to know the current status of these plans for making the area a historical park. (My SASE is enclosed for the reply.)

I also wish to share additional information with you concerning the Cleveland graves. I believe the information on one of the tombstones is incorrect. My spiritual cousin/collaborator in Taylors, SC--Debbie Barfield--and I have discussed the matter at length based on the volumes of Cleveland material we have received on all the Southern Cleveland lines. There has always been confusion in differentiating early Clevelands who shared the same name--Jeremiah, Larkin, and John among the most common. According to the dates on the tombstone, the Jeremiah Cleveland buried by SC Hwy 11 is my g-g-g-g-g-grandfather, who was the son of Aleaxnder and Milly Presley Cleveland. (I believe he is really buried in Habersham County, GA, though I have never received any proof of his burial site.) Again according to information on the tombstones, the John and Larkin Cleveland in this cemetery are my Jeremiah's nephews and the sons of John and Elizabeth Coffey Cleveland. This John and Larkin did have a brother named Jeremiah, but his birth and death dates (1746-1806) are different from those on the tombstone. Since the tombstones are "20th century headstones of unknown origin," I suspect that the unknown benefactor confused his/her Jeremiah Clevelands when ordering the inscriptions and that the Jeremiah buried there is, indeed, the brother of "Reverend John" and Larkin. Perhaps the confusion arose because there is only one Jeremiah Cleveland listed in the DAR Patriot's Index--my ancestor, who was married to Nancy Helen Clark. (This index, it should be noted, is commendable but not totally inclusive.) I realize that this "correction" might seem trivial to most, but to a genealogist those dates can be crucial!

I am interested in corresponding with any and all descendants of Alexander and Milly Presley Cleveland. If your paper has a genealogical or historical column, I would appreciate any mention you can make of my project. I am enclosing a copy of the article that appeared in my local paper.

Thank you for whatever assistance you can provide.

Sincerely,

Vikki Lyn Cleveland

Additional Information:

(1) Mary Cleveland Married Barnard Franklin. Barnard was born 6 May 1731 in Albemarle County, Virginia, and died in January 1828 in Wilkes County, North Carolina. Barnard married second in 1807, Susannah, widow of James Fletcher of Wilkes County. He was a son of Laurence Franklin and Mary Payne. Barnard and Mary went to Surry County, North Carolina about the year 1769, along with Benjamin Cleveland and his family, the Graves, and the Taliaferro family. They settled on a hill overlooking Fisher River. Their home near Lowgap, built in 1792, was acquired for restoration in 1972 by the Surry County Historical Society. Barnard, who may have founded the Mitchell River Baptist Church, named children for Biblical figures. W.R. Edmonds, in The University Magazine, March 1811, said that the Clevelands and Franklins were settlers of Albemarle County, Virginia. On 6 February 1764, Laurence Franklin Sr. and wife Mary (Payne) of Orange County conveyed to Barnard Franklin, "leather britches maker of Albemarle County" 200 acres, part of a 400 acre tract patented to Franklin, 100 of which was sold to Alexander Cleveland Sr., 100 to Benjamin Franklin, and the other 200 now to Barnard Franklin. The known children of Mary Cleveland and Barnard Franklin were:

1. Jeremiah Franklin, born 2 September 1754, remained in Albemarle County.

2. Barnard Franklin Jr, born 27 April 1756, married Martha Cleveland, daughter of Alexander Cleveland. They remained in Albemarle.

3. Jesse Franklin, third of seven brothers, born 24 March 1760, died September 1823 in Surry County, North Carolina. He married Meekey Perkins of Buckingham County, Virginia. Meekey died February 1834. Jesse was buried at the Guilford Battleground.

4. Elizabeth Franklin, born 10 March 1762, Albemarle County.

5. Abner Franklin, born 28 April 1764, died Ca. 1827 in Dallas County, Alabama. He married Rhoda Cleveland who died prior to 1820.

6. Shadrack Franklin, born 20 April 1769 in Virginia, died August 1859 in Surry County, North Carolina. He married Judith Taliaferro, who was born 27 February 1762 and died 28 September 1850.

7. Mary Franklin, born 14 May 1771 in Surry County, North Carolina.

Nearly all sons of B. & Mary Cleveland Franklin served in legislatures of NC & GA

2. MARY CLEVELAND, daughter of JOHN & MARTHA (COFFEY) CLEVELAND, does not have a birth date given. She married, probably in Orange County, Va. Bernard Franklin, a son of Laurence and Mary (Payne) Franklin. Barnard was born 26 May 1731 and d. Jan 1828 in Surry County, N. C. They came into North Carolina about the time Benjamin Cleveland did, settling on Mitchell's River, which was in Wilkes County for awhile after Wilkes was created from Surry in 1778, but by the running of a new county line some years later, again fell into Surry County, where both Mary and Bernard died. They had the following children and nearly all their sons served in the Legislature of North Carolina and Georgia.

Bernard & Mary settled on a Surry County, NC, site chosen by son Jesse on a hill overlooking Fisher River c 1789. Their home near Dobson, built in 1792, was acquired by Surry County Historical Society in 1972.

Bernard may have founded Mitchell River Bapt. Church – named his children for Biblical figures

6 Feb 1764, Lawrence Franklyn, Sr. & wife Mary (Payne) of Orange County, VA, conveyed to "Bernard Franklyn, Leather breeches maker of County of Albemarle" a 400-acre tract in Orange County patented by Franklyn, 100 acres of which were sold to Alexander Cleveland, Sr. and 100 to Benja. Franklyn, "and the other 200 now to Bernard Franklyn." John Cleaveland witness.

Anticipating Tory attacks, Mary "buried all the best bedclothes and table linens in a big box in the garden and then planted potatoes to disguise the fresh dirt. And (another family member) tucked all the family's gold and silver in a stocking, hid it under her apron and then sat calmly down to knit and make conversation while Tories raided the house. The box in the garden and the stocking full of treasure were all that was left of the family's property by the time the war was over." Winston-Salem Journal and Sentinel 1 Oct 1972 (via June Rayfield Welch)

Gabriel T. & Mary Cleveland Franklin of Sardis, Panola County, MS - 1885
Children: Mary E. Moore of Sardis
Sallie C. Moore, unm., of Sardis

Meshach - member House of Commons, NC, 1800
US Representative from NC 1807-1815
State Senator, NC Leg 1828-1829
Member Executive Council of NC
Delegate to convention for revising state constitution

Buried at his homestead in Surry County, NC - place owned in 1885 by Columbus McMickle.

About the restored Edwards-Franklin house the Surry County Historical Society at Mount Airy, NC says:

"Gideon Edwards built his house on a knoll of bedrock facing South, protected by Skull Camp Mountain against northern winter winds. The date, 1799, on the chimney probably marks the completion of the house.

"A member of a prominent Virginia family, Edwards had come to NC seeking land and opportunity. His new plantation of 2,330 acres along both sides of Fisher River was farmed by fifty slaves. Well respected in the community, he represented Surry County at the state convention to ratify the Federal Constitution in 1789 and served fifteen terms in the state legislature. He and his wife, Nancy E. Perkins, raised two sons and a daughter in the house.

"Mildred, the only child to survive her father, married Meshack Franklin in 1802. They moved into her childhood home after Gideon Edwards' death in 1810. Ownership of the house passed to them when Mildred's mother died in 1820.

42 Thomas Hickerson, Echoes of Happy Valley, Chapel Hill, NC: 1962. Mount Airy News, September 1988.

"A well-educated farmer, Meshack Franklin founded the Surry County Agricultural Society and practiced advanced farming methods, including crop rotation and contour plowing. His commercial crop, tobacco, was worked by forty to sixty slaves. A corn mill built on the property was used into the twentieth century and still stands today. Like Mildred's father, Meshack was prominent in Surry County politics, service first in the General Assembly tnen in the United States Congress from 1807 to 1815.

"In 1823 the Franklins remodeled the house, adding the front porch and redecorating in the elegant style of Washington houses Mechack had visited while serving in Congress. He replaced the stairs with a handsome Federal staircase, put new mantels in the first floor rooms, and repainted the gold colored exterior in chalk white and the interior in softer, more subtle colors.

"Jesse, one of Mechack's ten children, sold the house, mill and 1,300 acres in 1847 to Sinclair McMickle, who farmed the land and maintained the buildings well. The house was inherited by a son, Christopher Columbus McMickle, and his wife Roseltha P. Kapp. The yuonger McMickle was a justice of the peace and tax assessor. In 1871 a post office for Edwardsville was located at the house. The Mc Mickles lived in the house until their deaths in 1914.

"Their daughter Laura married James Blevins, but died in 1935 with no surviving children. In 1937 James married Elsie Lou McCann of Alleghany County, After his death, Elsie remained in the house until 1969 when she moved to her son Samuel's home, a few miles south. The house was vacant until it was acquired by the Surry County Historical Society."
